PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, by joint resolution, the Congress has set apart May every year as Child Health Day; and

WHEREAS, we recognize that the Health of our children is of vital importance to the strength of our Nation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Earlean J. Bushfield, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 1, 1942, as and I call upon the people of South Dakota to contribute to the conservation of child health and the reduction of illness among children by exerting every effort to the end that before May 1, Child Health Day, children over nine months of age be immunized against diphtheria and smallpox, the two diseases for which we have the surest means of prevention.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Pierre, this First day of April, 1942.
